Historic Trophies Repaired and Revitalized at Deadwood Recreation and Aquatic Center

The City of Deadwood Recreation & Aquatic Center has over 70 historic trophies from Deadwood High School on display. Brothers Jim and Bob Phillips graciously donated their time in locating, cleaning, repairing, and researching the trophies. They had been placed in storage rooms and closets since the 2008 improvements at the Deadwood Recreation & Aquatic Center and some were located at the Black Hills Mining Museum.

This spring the Black Hills Mining Museum donated several trophy cases to the cause. With the help of local citizen David Cote, the cases were repaired with the addition of doors, casters, and lights.

Through the generous efforts of Jim and Bob

Phillips and David Cote the Deadwood Historic Preservation assisted with the material repair costs to the cases and trophies and has them proudly on display at the Deadwood Recreation & Aquatic Center.

ATTENTION!!

Beginning August 1 Prairie Hills Transit is discontinuing transportation services in Deadwood. Please contact Tom Kruzel at 578-2082 for transportation needs previously provided by Prairie Hills.

The Lawrence County Historical Society is in the process of creating Volume II of Some History of Lawrence County, which will be published the summer of 2018. If your ancestors were in Lawrence County before 1917 and are not included in the first book, we want to include them in this volume II. Please contact us with the following information:

What year did your ancestors come to Lawrence County? How did they travel here? Train? Wagon? Stagecoach? Where did they settle in Lawrence County? Where did they come from? What was their/his/her occupation? Who did he/she marry? How many children did he/she have? Can you share copies of photos? Any special family stories? Your name and mailing address; email if available.

August 18: History on the Lawn: Hugh Glass: Grizzly Survivor – Author and historian, James McLaird, will present the story of Hugh Glass, noting how the legendary tale emerged, but also commenting about the movie, The Revenant, and how the actual Hugh Glass of history is different from that described in popular biographies. McLaird also looks at the grizzly bear itself, examining popular sentiments towards the creature that led to its near-extinction. Bring a lunch and enjoy the Historic Adams House lawn; 12:00 p.m.; admission by donation. In case of inclement weather, the lecture will be moved to the Homestake Adams Research and Cultural Center (HARCC).

Vacation Rental Ordinance Reminder

Deadwood Property Owners:

As many of you may know, the commercial transient use of residentially zoned properties is prohibited within Deadwood city limits. The nightly rental of a property must be commercially zoned or operate with an approved conditional use permit for a Manager Stay Bed and Breakfast. Vacation rentals, as allowed by the State of South Dakota Department of Health, are PROHIBITED in residentially zoned property within the City of Deadwood and where permitted must be licensed with the State of South Dakota and register with the City of Deadwood as a commercial lodging establishment. The growing trend to vacation rental properties while appealing to not only the owner, but the customer in Deadwood is a liability to you as an owner. Not only is the safety of the customer very important while staying in a lodging establishment, but both the customer and the property owner are subject to fine if found in violation of City of Deadwood Codified Ordinance 17.53. The City of Deadwood asks that if you are actively using your property as a vacation rental to stop and to remove all marketing from all websites. If you have any questions in regards to vacation rentals or the ordinance please feel free to contact me anytime. Thank you.
