City of Deadwood Safety Awards Presented

During the February 6, 2022 City Commission Meeting, Chief Ken Mertens presented Safety Awards to Trevor Tridle and Trent J. Rachetto.

The safety awards are part of the City of Deadwood Safety Committee's Employee Recognition Program. The purpose of this program is to recognize an employee or department for excellent safety practices.

A Deadwood resident contacted the city to thank Trevor and Trent for going above and beyond with shoveling the city steps after the big snow storm in December 2022.

Residents are encouraged to contact the City, by calling (605) 578-2600 ext. 5, to recognize an employee or department they see practicing safety excellence throughout Historic Deadwood.

Broadway Parking Ramp Speed Limit

The City of Deadwood has received numerous complaints about customers speeding while driving through the Broadway Parking Ramp. As a reminder for our residents and visitors alike, the speed limit in the ramp is 5 MPH.

Chief Mertens would like to remind everyone, if necessary, that speeding tickets will be issued, which could result in the permanent loss of your parking permit.
