Deadwood Police Department forms Honor Guard

On Thursday, July 27, 2023, the newly formed Deadwood Honor Guard made its inaugural public appearance presenting the nation's colors during the National Anthem at the Days of '76 rodeo. The formation of the Honor Guard was developed by Sgt. Erik Jandt and created in 2022. With the support of Northern Hills Fraternal Order of Police, Deadwood V.F.W. and additional donors, it became a reality.

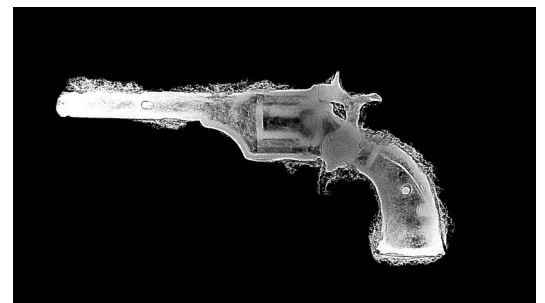

The Deadwood Honor Guard is an auxiliary unit within the Deadwood Police Department. Jandt stated the reason for creating the Honor Guard is to exhibit professionalism and honor both current military personnel & Veterans who reside in the community, as well as those who are currently employed by the DPD. Ultimately, the Honor Guard not only recognizes the department & its current officers, but also all those who have made sacrifices for the community and the country.

Though the formation of an Honor Guard has been discussed through the years, it took Jandt approximately 13 months to create the Honor Guard from the ground up. This included choosing the right uniform with a custom-made braid and colors. "It's something I'm deeply proud of", Sgt. Jandt said. Members of Deadwood Police Department's first Honor Guard include Sergeant Erik Jandt, Sergeant Sally Sprigler, Officer Devon Schumacher, Officer Jenny Rea, and Reserve Officer Wylie Walno.

Busy Summer for City Archives

The City Archives had a productive summer this year through the help of student interns, a Deadwood Police Department officer, and its volunteers. Under the guidance of the Deadwood Historic Preservation office, these individuals assisted in the organization, classification, and digitization of several City's historic and municipal collections.

In April & May, two students from the Box Elder Job Corp and one returning college student helped re-inventory portions of the FourPoints archaeological collection, scanned historic oversized maps and architectural plans, digitized survey notebooks from Deadwood surveyor Frank S. Peck and historical film footage. (cont. pg 2)

Archives (Cont. pg 1) City Archives also received help from a city staff member assigned to light duty who digitized multiple volumes of specification books in the Archives library and organized a collection from the Black Hills Mercantile. Two volunteers assisted City Staff every Tuesday & Thursday with the FourPoints collection.

One highlight of the summer was the donation of 11,000 objects unearthed during the 2004 Mineral Palace expansion. These objects, including a relic condition revolver (pg. 1) are associated with Al Swearingin's Gem Theater, one of Deadwood's infamous dancehalls. Archives staff posted every Tuesday on Facebook some of the more interesting items from these collections. Be sure and follow City of Deadwood Historic Preservation on Facebook to see a sampling of the many artifacts that Archives have cleaned and catalogued this. <https://www.facebook.com/deadwoodhistoricpreservation>

Deadwood History Inc. Events

September 7: The Marshals and Mayors of Deadwood, and Sheriffs of Lawrence County since 1876 by Bill Haas – Haas' book offers accurate information about who served as mayors and as heads of law enforcement in Deadwood and Lawrence County since 1876. Many of these officials influenced the development of Deadwood and Lawrence County. Adams Museum; 3-5p.m. and is free to attend.

September 7: Deadwood History's Big Thank You – Deadwood History, Inc. board of directors and staff would like to thank our members, sponsors, and volunteers for their support with a private appreciation party at the Adams Museum. Join us for a wine-tasting, hors d'oeuvres, and entertainment by Connie Gunn. Adams Museum; 5-7p.m. Advance reservations appreciated. Call 605-722-4800 for reservations.

September 14: Preservation Thursday: Black Hills Caves and the Karst Systems of the Black Hills – Karl Emanuel, a geologist with Black Hills National Forest, will discuss caves and karst systems in the Black Hills. The Black Hills is host to two of the world's largest and most complex cave systems, as well as hundreds of less extensive, but equally complex caves and karst systems. The origin and evolution of these systems will be discussed in layman's terms along with recent advances in cave and karst research and how that work has clarified our understanding of the size and nature of these complex and hydrologically important systems. Homestake Adams Research and Cultural Center; 12:00 p.m.; free for members and $5 for non-members.

September 24: Busts at the Brothel – New York Times Best Selling author Chris Enss will be signing copies of her book, An Open Secret: The Story of Deadwood's Most Notorious Bordellos from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. at The Brothel Deadwood. Enss will also present Busts at the Brothel. These 30-minute presentations at 12:00 p.m., 2:00 p.m., and 4:00 p.m. will highlight the raids and arrests during the time the brothels were operating in Deadwood. The event is free and open to the public. Donations are appreciated. Stop by to meet Chris Enss and tour The Brothel. Snacks and bottled water will be served. Special drawings will be available to brothel visitors throughout the day.
