Foreword

That in years to come, the present students of Deadwood High school may not forget the friendships formed, and the activities which are now all-important to us, we, the Senior Class of 1925 leave as our last message to our Alma Mater, the 1925

ORACLE

To E. A. Hollister, who during the past fifteen years as instructor and Superintendent of Deadwood High School, has become a vital part of our school, this book is respectfully and lovingly dedicated as a very slight token of the warm esteem and veneration in which he is regarded by all his students.

ATHLETICS

Coach Shedd

During Coach Shedd's stay of two years at Deadwood High he has produced the best brands of teams in Football, Basketball and Track seen here in a good number of years. He is deemed by all the lettermen and students as the best coach Deadwood has ever had, and the next one will have to go some to put anything above his high standard.

Football Personnel

Captain Watson at fullback, has played four years for Deadwood. He was the backbone of the team and could always be depended upon for gains. D. H. S. will miss him.

Hutchens, at half and quarter, was Deadwood's high point man. He was especially clever on an open field. He kept the opposing team guessing at all times. "Hutch" is a Senior and will be missed next year.

Bischoff, at half and end, has played three years. His best playing was running interference and on the defense. He is another Senior whom the team regrets to lose.

Cole, at guard, though handicapped by light weight, more than made it up in spirit. Cole is a Senior and has played for two years.

Sohn, at guard and tackle, though handicapped by lack of experience, was a hard man to handle. "Dutch" played his first year of football in his Senior year.

Schmoker, at guard, was one of the heaviest men on the team and a dependable linesman. This is "Smoke's" last year after two years with D. H. S.

Culbertson, (Captain elect.) at half and quarter, kept the opposing team guessing, and was a good ground gainer. "Shorty" has one more year, which will make four years with the team.

Hill, (Captain, 1925) at tackle is a mountain of a man. He was the backbone of the line, a consistent player and a hard fighter, in the game at all times. Hill has one more year to play after three years.

Crouch, at end, played a good game always. He covered punts well and was a hard man to handle. Danny has still another year, as he is now a Junior.

Eilers, at end, was of the rangy type and could pull a pass down from anywhere. He was big enough to box the tackle in, and he covered punts very well. Though a Junior, this is his first year and he has picked up the game fast.

Squire, a big man at the tackle position, has displayed much offensive ability, and is a hard man to handle in the defense. Hawkins has another year.

Roberts completed his second year at guard. He is small in stature but a wise player. "Bear" will be with the team another year.

Arnold has played all the three years of his high school career and made his letter this year. He is another small man but displays ability and will probably be in the regular line-up next year.

Dye, a Sophomore, made a fine showing in the games he played. He made a letter this year and promises to be an exceptionally strong man next year.

Hesse, another Soph, is a newcomer, and played his first season this year. He will probably make a good player with experience.

Johnson, the only Freshman on the lineup played center most of the season. He has nerve and is a hard player.

Football Season of '24

The Football season of 1924 was one of the most successful that D. H. S. has had for a great many years, the team winning two out of five games and tying for one of them. Three other games were played with ineligible teams, and out of these one was copped.

The first game of the year was played on our own field with the Mill City squad. It was a slow game, being played on a muddy field, but showed up the weak points of the team and the proper positions for the different men. Lead, after a hard fight, pushed thru for the only touch-down, thus winning the game by a score of 6 to 0.

The next week, according to schedule, we journeyed to Hot Springs, and there gained Deadwood a reputation. After arriving, the boys put up at the Braun, and after a good rest deemed themselves fit to take the Resort boys into camp. They showed up on the field bright and early, and ran thru a few signals before the game. It was a great scrap from start to finish, rain starting at the end of the first half. Hutchens, by a perfect end run, gave the ball a little ride for 50 yards for the only touchdown of the game. We carried the banners high at the end of the game by the score of 6 to 0. We found the Hot Springs bunch the best of sportsmen and will always consider them as our friends.

After another week of training we went to Belle Fourche. Belle had defeated Lead the Saturday before, but Deadwood went there to upset the dope. Belle made the first touchdown when Leslie stole around the end for it. After a drop kick by Culbertson, the game ended, Deadwood 10, Belle Fourche 7. When the team returned, they were given a banquet at the A. & F. Cafe, by Mrs. Alsip.

On Armistice Day we played our old rival. Lead. The game started in briskly. In the middle of the second half, the game was called off for various reasons. The score stood 1 to 0 in favor of Lead.

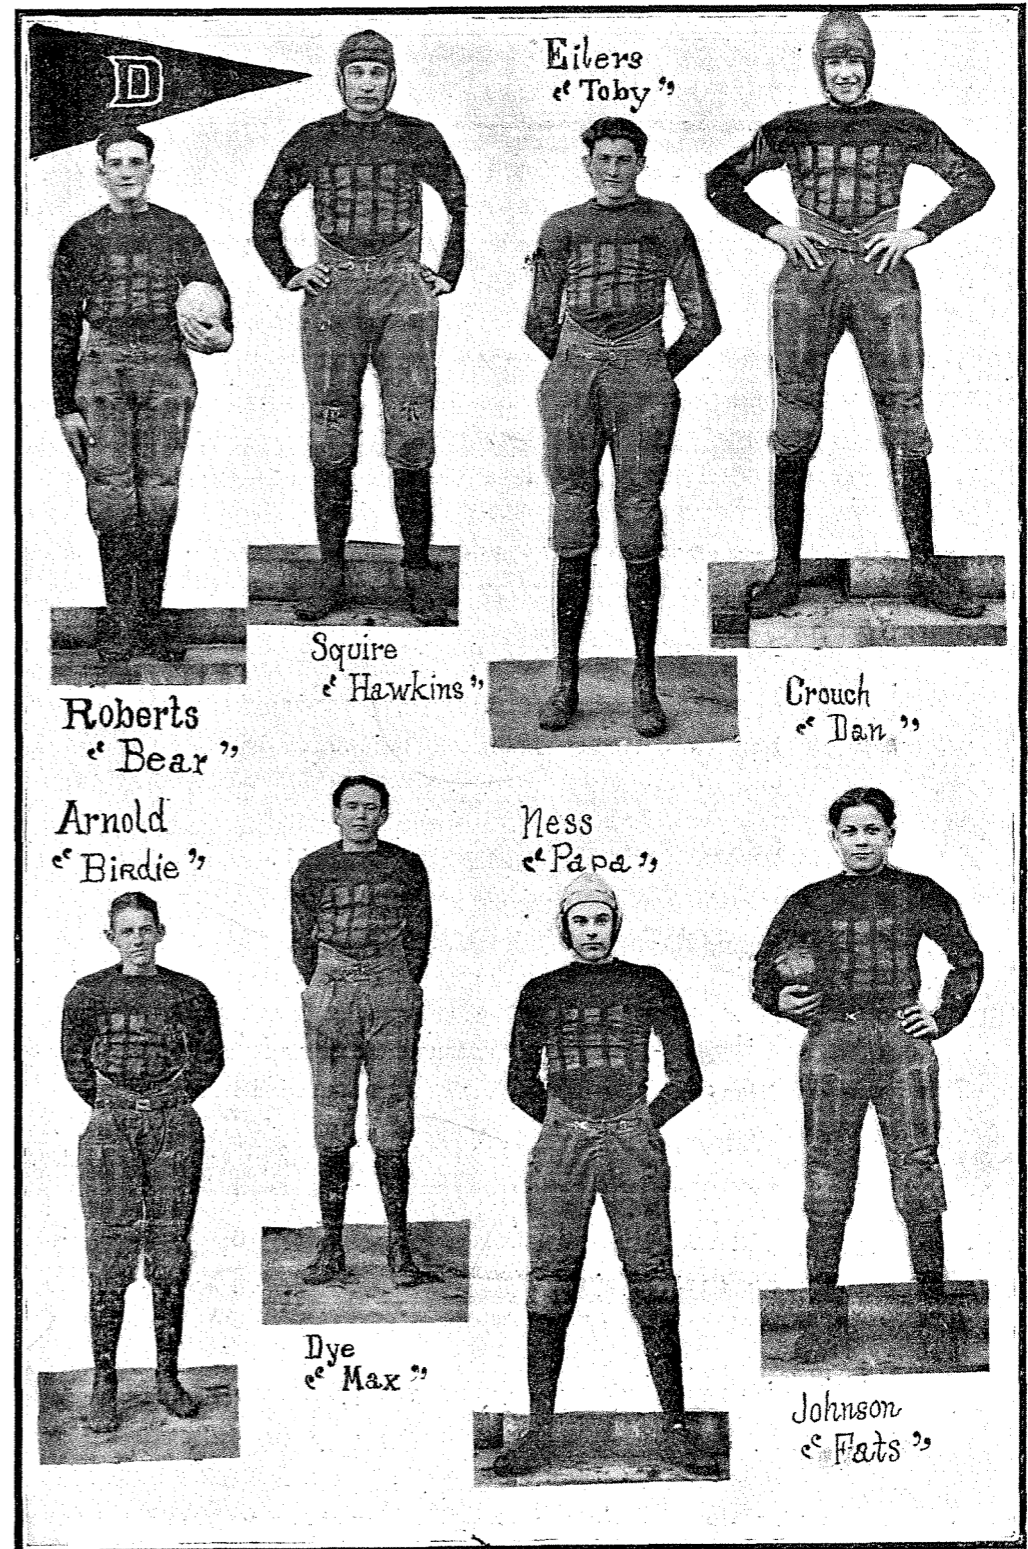

The last game of the season, played with an eligible team, was Belle Fourche, on Turkey day, and much to everyone's disappointment, it snowed the night before, leaving a foot of snow on the field. It was a very slow and uneventful game, with but few thrills. Deadwood had Belle outclassed at all times, and would undoubtedly have made several touchdowns had the field not been so slippery. The second half ended 0 to 0.

Two of the three games played with ineligible teams were played with Nisland, and one with the Spearfish Normal seconds. The two Nisland games were both lost by scores of 19 to 7, and 18 to 3. Nisland had a very powerful team.

The S. N. S. also had a strong team. Deadwood took the game by a score of 9 to 0.

We can boast that Deadwood had a powerful team last season, and ought to have a still better one next year, as only six men are leaving: Sohn, Watson, Hutchens, Bischoff, Cole and Schmoker.

Hill was elected pilot of the team for '25.

Basketball Team

Capt. Eilers, all-district center, was high point man of the squad. He played a crack game all the time, out-jumping every center in the district and making baskets from all angles. Capt. Eilers will again be with the team next year.

Hill, all-district guard, surely deserved the title. He covered his territory and was always on the alert. He never faltered or fumbled, and when a basket was made on his side it was usually a long one. He was a hard man to play against and we are all glad that he has one more year to play.

Culbertson, forward, played well and had a good eye for baskets, especially short ones. Shorty is another Junior.

Bischoff, forward, did his best work in getting the tipoff, playing the floor and feeding his mates. He will graduate this year. A good player will be lost.

Watson, guard, was another hard man to play against. He was especially good in working the ball down the floor. This is his last year and D. H. S. regrets it.

Lyons, forward, was a little star. Though small he was slippery and had a good eye for the basket. We are glad that he will be with us two more years.

Sohn, guard, though inexperienced, showed up very well. He has the stuff for a good player. This is his last year.

Dye, forward, was handicapped because of lack of experience; however, Max has two more years and will become a valuable player.

Basketball

We started the year with seven men from last year's squad and the season promised to be a most successful one. We trounced the Alumni in our first game and the next week we went to Newell, Nisland and Belle Fourche. The first game was dropped to Newell—21 to 14, due to lack of team work. The next night at Nisland we started playing both a defensive and offensive game, and beat Nisland 29 to 9. At Belle, Deadwood played one of the fast games of the season, neither team having a lead or a cinch. The score ended 18 to 16 in favor of our opponents.

We then had six games scheduled on the home floor. They were: Hot Springs, Rapid City, Nisland, Newell, Belle Fourche and Sturgis.

In the Belle game D. H. S. showed the best form of the year, walking over them to the tune of—Deadwood, 26; Belle, 13.

Rapid City caught us on one of our off nights and several of the gang had colds. The game was slow, both teams playing a defensive, Rapid nosing out at the end of the game with a 20 to 14 victory.

In our game with Sturgis, Lodge beat us by his long and effective shots from the middle of the floor, which took the heart out of our fellows for the first half. In the next half, however, Squire covered Lodge very well and our team began to creep in on Sturgis, for they made only 2 points in the last half. Nevertheless, the lead they had in the first half made it their victory by a score of 14 to 13.

Newell and Nisland were out of class on the Auditorium floor and we easily did them up; scores, Deadwood 29, Newell 17; Deadwood 22, Nisland 3.

Hot Springs played poor basket ball in the first half, making only 1 point, while Deadwood made 15. They came back strong in the second half, making 11 points to Deadwood's 6. The lead was too heavy for them and we won, 21 to 12.

With our last games not far off, we started on a trip to Custer, Hot Springs and Rapid City. The Custer game was easy—34 to 12 in our favor. The hall was small and Lyons was in his element, making 17 points. In the Hot Springs game it was a fight from start to finish, but we won by the low margin of 17 to 18. The game at Rapid City the next night was our last game and we intended to win. The game was very fast with a fine referee. We led Rapid until the last few minutes when their guards tossed in two long shots from past the middle of the floor, thus making them go ahead and giving them the break of the game by the score of Rapid, 17; Deadwood, 14.

Basketball

At the Tournament we drew Spearfish for our first game, and started in the game with the subs, but Spearfish proved too good and at the beginning of the second quarter Eilers, Bischoff and Culbertson were put in and Deadwood surged ahead. The game ended, Spearfish 12, Deadwood 21.

Hot Springs proved to be a very worthy foe, and we had a battle royal for our second game. The score was Deadwood 18, Hot Springs 16, which put the Deadwood battlers in the semi-finals. After previously trouncing Belle so roundly, we expected to win, but Belle was in good form and the going could not get started. The game ended, Belle 19, Deadwood 14, which eliminated us.

Coach Shedd is to be congratulated on the way he has built up athletics in Deadwood during the last two years, and it should be even more successful next year, for he has not only coached the present team, but has looked out for the future stars.

Following are the individual points made by members of the team:

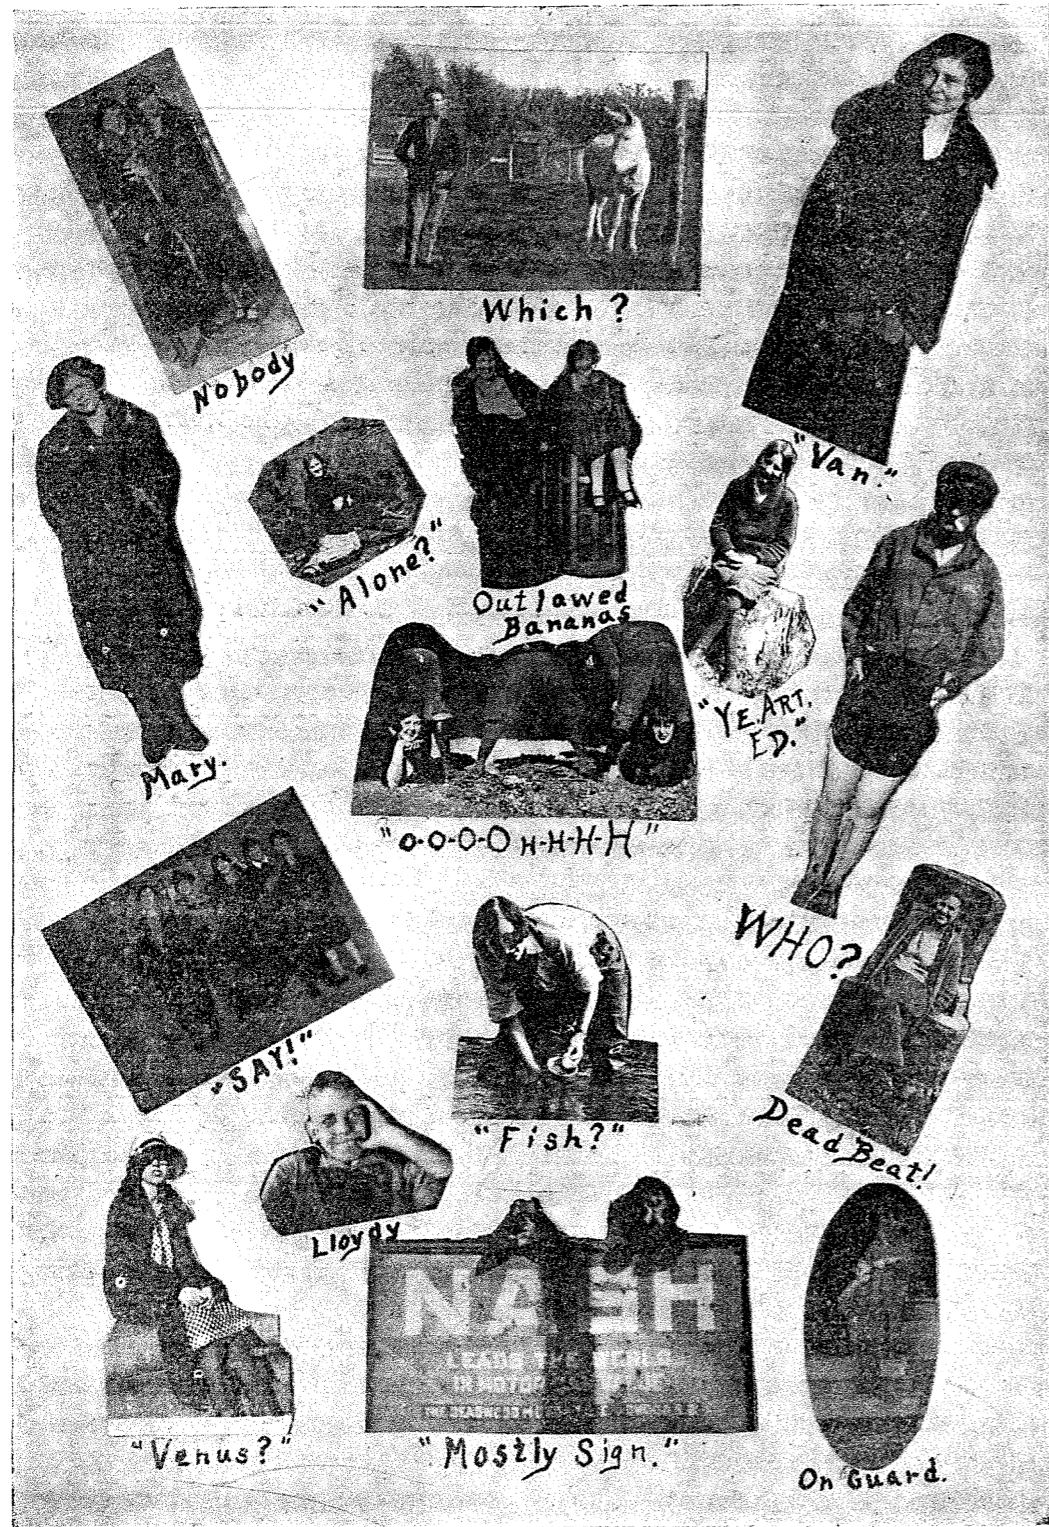

Name	F. G.	F. T.	Total
Eilers	49	19	117

Track Season '25

Track started with an extensive amount of pep with fully 30 boys suited up ready for action. From last year we had Watson, captain; Eilers, Bischoff, Hill, and two new members, Lyons and Sohn. Much interest was aroused when the possibility of going to Pierre was brought up. Relay teams were started in the Medley, Shuttle, two-mile, etc., and Watson began limbering up that punch for the special shot put. Five boys were sent down, i. e., the five mentioned above. Deadwood took five points, four of which belonged to Watson, who took second in the shot and third in the broad jump; the other point was taken by the Medley Relay Team.

They were soon on duty again after returning from Pierre and went to Spearfish on April the 29th, where Deadwood took 6th place in the meet. But it was a good lesson and Deadwood left for Rapid on May 6th, determined to put D. H. S. on the map, which they surely did. At Rapid, Deadwood came out third, Rapid City and Belle Fourche tying for first, Hot Springs second. Watson was high point man of the whole meet, taking 12 of Deadwood's 18 points; Sohn came along with 5 points and Eilers one. Watson broke the Black Hills record in the shot put, tossing it forty-one feet eight inches, and that record will remain there for a long time. He took second in the low hurdles, second in the discus and third in the broad jump. Sohn broke the 440 dash record, coming in one-fifth of a second behind Franks of Nisland, thus winning second place. He also placed third in the half mile and shot put. Eilers took third in the high jump.

Deadwood has good representatives in Track and one of them, Capt. Watson, is being sent to Brookings on May 22. Watson is a Senior, and it is his last chance to bring home another High School record, and all of D. H. S. is for him. Come on Watson!

ACTIVITIES

Forum

The first Forum meeting in the school year of 1924-25 was called by Superintendent Hollister. The following officers were elected:

- President Adrian Watson
- Vice President Genevieve Howe
- Secretary Gladys Kamnetz
- Treasurer Leona Nelson
- Cheer Leader Reva Arnold
- Sergeant-at-arms Francis Jones

The president called a meeting in October, and Mr. Schultz brought up for consideration the proposition of Student Cooperation in the school government. It was later brought to a vote, and carried by an overwhelming majority. Two members were elected from each class for the purpose of framing the constitution, which was then approved by the school.

Student Government has been a great success, and the council members have fulfilled their duty in a praiseworthy manner.

Student Government

Early in the year our school adopted a new system of government —i. e., student cooperation in government.

This plan was introduced by a group of students who talked it over with Mr Schultz and Mr. Hollister and then the matter was brought before the Forum, in which body it met with unanimous approval.

A committee was appointed to draw up a Constitution and at a later meeting we voted on this constitution, measure by measure, and each was passed.

The Constitution provided for a Student Council consisting of two members from each class to be elected in rotation. The members of this committee were empowered to enforce the rules of the constitution and to issue warnings or summons before the committee students who disobeyed the laws.

When a student was summoned before the council, which met at 3:35 each evening, he was given a formal trial, allowed to speak for himself and even to bring in witnesses. After hearing the case, the council decided whether the person was guilty or not. In the latter case he was dismissed and in the former proper punishment was decided upon.

For a time, committee members were very unpopular and there was quite a good deal of friction, but on the whole, our Student Government can well be called a success. We have all noticed the difference since we have gone back under the supervision of the teachers. The reason for this was the fact that after the student strike, it was thought advisable to be under the teachers' supervision because of the many prejudices and hard feelings caused by the strife, which might lead to unpleasantness in regard to the issuance of summons, etc.

Most of the students agree that this self-government is good training, because, by this means we get away from the practice of taking advantage of the teachers, as is always the case when under their supervision.

Popularity Contest

The purpose of the Popularity Contest was to determine who is the best booster for the school and its function was to advertise and boost the Oracle and to get subscribers. The contest lasted six weeks and there were quite a number of entrants. Everyone took a spirited interest and worked hard.

The decision—awarded to the person obtaining the largest number of subscriptions—goes to Miss Hazel Davis, who is to be complimented for her very successful work in the campaign. Deadwood High needs a few more boosters like this.

Commercial Activities

The Commercial Department of Deadwood High School has certainly made this a red-letter year in the career of D. H. S., as far as this line of work is concerned. We thought we made a remarkable record last year at both the District and State Contests, but that was almost nothing compared to our wonderful record of this year. Some of the students have taken 120-word dictation in Stenography II and have written 65 words a minute in typing.

The first thing is the number of certificates, pins and medals that have been awarded in both typewriting and shorthand. Leona and Agnes have received certificates of membership in the Order of Gregg Artists. Leona, Agnes and Effie have received 80-word certificates in the Gregg transcription tests. Effie has received a 100-word certificate in the Gregg transcription tests.

The following have received honors in typewriting:

60-word pins—Effie Smith.

50-word pins—Dorothy Kubler.

40-word pins—Dorothy Kubler, Lester Bischoff, William Cole.

30-word certificates—Dorothy Kubler, Agnes Auer, Genevieve Brown, Mary Cline.

The District Contest was held in Rapid City, April 11. Previous to this, a preliminary contest was held for the purpose of eliminating all but three contestants in each division. As a result, the following were chosen to represent Deadwood:

Novice Shorthand—Minnie Sarkis, Dorothy Blumenthal, Ellen Brosnahan.

Amateur Shorthand—Leona Nelson, Effie Smith, Agnes Auer.

Novice Typing—Dorothy Kubler.

Amateur Typing—Effie Smith.

As usual Deadwood brought home the bacon, winning two first places and two second places. Effie took first place in Amateur Shorthand and second in Amateur Typing. Dorothy Kubler took first in Novice Typing, and Minnie Sarkis, second in Novice Shorthand.

The State Contest was held in Huron, May 9. Effie Smith and Dorothy Kubler, accompanied by Mrs. Poch, were Deadwood's representatives. For two weeks previous to this, some of the Deadwood stenographers came to the High School every evening for a half hour, to compete with our contestants in typing, thus training them for contest work. In appreciation of their assistance, a party was given on April 30, by the Home Economics Department, which was one of the most delightful social events of the year.

As before, Deadwood brought home her share of honors. Effie Smith won the State Championship in Amateur Shorthand. This is certainly a coveted place, as there were about twenty entries. We can always count on Effie.

Music

In Music, Deadwood High School has made a good showing in 1924-'25.

The first annual Black Hills Music Contest was held this year at Spearfish. Deadwood was represented by three contestants, as follows:

Dorothy Blumenthal Violin

Eleanor Rich Vocal

Dorothy Kubler Piano

Second place in the violin division was awarded to Dorothy Blumenthal.

In addition to this, the Girl's Glee Club has made an admirable showing. The girls have sung at many different entertainments and social functions. Some of these were: Parent-Teacher Association, the Round Table Club, Methodist Church, Federation of Women's Clubs, and Commencement.

In May a party was staged by the Club to crown the successful year. The girls were treated to an entertainment by a Flapper Chorus, and enjoyed a good many other stunts and games. Then after a grand feed and some more fun, the party at last broke up.

A great deal of credit is due to Miss Howe for the successful year which we have had in the Music Department.

Home Economics

The cooking classes have done a great deal of fine work this school term, canning, breadmaking, cake-making and various other methods of preparing food have been well mastered, and it is certain that Deadwood High is going to turn out some "good cooks."

The advanced cooking class, with the aid of the first year students, have prepared and served several delicious luncheons and dinners. Those who were treated to these "spreads" were: Lawrence County Home Economics Teachers; High School Faculty; Sewing Class; Board of Education and Stenographers.

The sewing class has done much praiseworthy work, too. They have made various garments of silk, wool, and cotton fabrics.

In May was held a Home Economics Exhibit where much of the work achieved during the year was attractively displayed. Miss Anderson, instructor in this department, deserves praise for all she has accomplished in her classes.

Declamatory

There were seventeen speakers in the dramatic section of the preliminary contest. The following selections were given:

The Keeper of the Light	Millie Mollenbrink
Hand Car 412	Melba Smith
The Lion and the Mouse	Gladys Kamnetz
Tobe's Monument	Genevieve Howe
The Perfect Tribute	Marjorie Ostrander
The Soul of the Violin	Bernadette O'Malley
Laddie	Dorothy Kubler
Madame X	Irene Thomas
The Convict's Violin	Margaret Prewitt
The Mallet's Masterpiece	Ellen Gramlich
Connor	Elizabeth Miller
Number 6	Corinne Hadwick
The Going of the White Swan.....	Helen Schneerer
In the Palace of the King	Dorothy Blumenthal
The Hundred and Oneth	Bessie Squire
Within the Law	Anna Rich
Humoresque	Mary Roberts

Each and every speaker showed talent as well as good training. Five were selected to take part in the home contest: Dorothy Blumenthal, Ellen Gramlich, Gladys Kamnetz, Bernadette O'Malley and Mary Roberts.

On March 2, was held the home contest and in this Ellen Gramlich won first place and Dorothy Blumenthal second. Ellen displayed remarkable talent and held the closest attention of her audience during her entire selection. Dorothy Blumenthal also did excellent work as did the other three who did not place.

The district contest was at Newell in April, and Deadwood can well be proud of her representation in this contest. We all agree that there must have been some very exceptional speaking in order to beat Ellen.

Oratorical

In the preliminary oratorical contest, the following competed:

Albro Ayres	The New American
William Cole	America, Queen of Nations
Lloyd Ayres	Bolshevism as Dangerous as Kaiserism
William Treber	I Am An American
Harry Lathrop	The Heroism of the Unknown

Three of these were chosen to compete in the home contest, namely, William Cole, William Treber and Harry Lathrop. In this contest, William Cole was awarded first place, and was presented with a beautiful silver loving cup. He showed exceptional ability in giving his selection, voice, gesture and entire interpretation being unusually good.

In April Billy represented the D. H. S. at the District Contest in Newell, and Deadwood has reason to be proud of his excellent showing there.

Both the dramatic and oratorical section of this contest were coached by our English teacher, Miss Van Heuvelen. She spent much time and energy on the work, and a great deal of credit is due her for her untiring efforts to put D. H. S. ahead.

Honor Society

This year Miss Effie Smith is the only illustrious member of the Class of '25 to be honored. She has worked hard all through school, is one of the best and most needed leaders, and has given the majority of her time to her school for the benefit of D. H. S.

One of the foremost in student government, secretary of the council, Editor of both the Comment and Oracle, she is to be commended for her service and work in good, old Deadwood High.

Now she has received only a small part of the great reward that is due her, and we all wish her good luck in her journey through the world, that she may always be a scholar and leader wherever she goes.

ELIZABETH HOWE, '23

Elizabeth was valedictorian of her class, and would undoubtedly have been elected to the Honor Society had there been one the year she graduated. She is one of the most brilliant scholars we have ever had, and is making an enviable record at the University of S. D. this year. She received the first girl's scholarship.

LLOYD WHITE, '23

White was one of our famous athletes. In 1923 he was chosen as All-Black Hills Center. He holds the state record for the discus throw in track, and the district record for the high jump. He is a student of the Huron College this year, and like "Bud" has gone in for college athletics.

Senior Play

The play selected this year for the Commencement play of the Senior Class was "Green Stockings." It is a farce in three acts, and is studded with witty conversation and clever turns.

The play concerns the "engagement" of Celia Farraday, who is thought by all her relatives to be a hopeless old maid. Celia jars them all, however, when on returning from a short trip, she announces her pretended engagement to Col. John Smith, who, she says, has just sailed for Somaliland. This wakes everyone up to the fact that, as Henry Steele remarks, "she isn't so bad looking if you only look long enough." Celia writes to her "Wobbles" every day, and with Aunt Ida's assistance, things are going along splendidly. In order to avoid any embarrassment, Celia inserts a notice of Col. Smith's death in the paper and then things happen. "Col. Vavasour", Smith's "dearest friend", returns from Somaliland, and makes Miss Farraday's acquaintance. Many complications arise, which in the end, of course, are untangled and Papa Farraday is able to take his rooms at his club.

The play was given at the Deadwood Theatre on June 3. Following is the cast:

Admiral Grice	Albro Ayres
William Farraday	Maurice Thierse
Colonel Smith	Adrian Watson
Robert Tarver	Walter Lorenzen
Henry Steele	Arnold Clements
James Raleigh	William Cole
Martin	Paul Hutchens
Celia Farraday	Maurine Kubler
Madge	Dorothy Kubler
Evelyn	Irene Thomas
Phyllis	Leona Nelson
Aunt Ida	Katherine Bolger

The play was coached by Miss Van Heuvelen, the head of the English Department, who deserves a great deal of credit for her work.

Junior Play

THE CHARM SCHOOL

"The Charm School" was given by the Junior Class at the Deadwood Theatre, November 6, 1924. It was under the able supervision of Miss Van Heuvelen and was a complete success.

Junior-Senior Banquet

On the evening of May 23, the Class of '26 entertained the Class of '25 at a banquet and dance given at the Franklin Hotel. It was said that this was one of the prettiest and most exquisite affairs ever given in the history of D. H. S.

The tables were very prettily decorated in blue and silver, the Senior colors. The white peony, '25's class flower, reigned supreme, as well as other flowers of blue and white shades. The same color scheme was carried out as far as possible in the menu, and blue and white favors were given to the Seniors.

During the banquet, various musical numbers were given, and there were several toasts and speeches. The remainder of the evening was spent in dancing and other entertainment.

Senior Day

Thursday, May 14, was a cloudy day to begin with, but that did not discourage the Seniors, for six carloads of peppy kids left town about 7:30, enroute for Little Rapid Canyon. Of course it was not possible for all of us to arrive without any adventures; but nothing serious happened—only a few detours, "wrong roads," etc.

Mr. Hollister, Mrs. Poch and Miss Van Heuvelen were chaperones.

As soon as we arrived in camp many of the boys set off to fish at once. Dinner was served at 12 o'clock sharp, and how good it tasted! Some belated fishers dropped in when we were about done, but they managed to get their share.

For entertainment, we had mumbledypeg, ball, a track meet, fishing, and almost anything one could imagine. At about 2:30 the rain began to fall, and though we were soaked, our spirits were not in the least dampened. Everyone piled into the cars, and the home voyage was much enjoyed.

But we did not feel the day completed, so it was arranged to top it off with a party at Nelson's. The evening was spent in playing cards, dancing, etc., and when at 12 o'clock the party broke up, everyone was very well pleased with Senior Day.

Physics-Chemistry Trip

The Physics and Chemistry classes took a very interesting trip to Lead and Rapid City this year. There were several carloads of students, and they decided to have a good time, even if they shouldn't be able to "compree" all they saw and heard about mines and mills and cement plants.

We started early in the morning, and after some little preliminary trouble and delay occasioned by a flat tire or two, we arrived at Lead and took in the Homestake Mine from stem to stern. After we had seen all there was to see around there, we came out and got ready to start on for Rapid, when—it commenced to rain. (Why is it that the the only time it ever rains is when you set out on a trip?) But we decided that we wouldn't melt in the rain, so after bidding a fond farewell to some of the chemistry students who were not going with us to Rapid, we set out.

At Sturgis we "lit" and made preparations for lunch, at Tourist Park. There was only a tin cracker box to boil the "weenies" in, and we were too famished to wait until some roasting forks could be made (it was after one o'clock) so lots of us ate our weenies raw—ah, beg pardon, we mean cold. They weren't so bad, at that; in fact we never tasted better eats in our life. The only kick we had to find with them was that their lasting qualities or durability was not very great.

After lunch we set out again for Rapid, and in the due course of time arrived there. We had to wait at the Cement Plant a couple of hours for some members of the party who had evidently become "stalled"; but finally they arrived, and we procured a guide to show us thru the plant. We found this more interesting than the mine, (some of us, at least,) because we could understand something of what we were seeing.

Of course the Junior boys had to get "funny" and gave Maurine and Eleanor a shower bath of cement, so that if they should have happened to get wet they would have been in a sad plight. Honestly, we took away enough cement from that place, in our clothes, faces and hair, to pave a city street.

From the Cement Plant we went down to the School of Mines and gave their museum the "once over." When that was done to everyone's satisfaction and there apparently was nothing else to see around there, we "hit the home trail." Did we say we didn't do justice to our suppers that evening?

Miss Green: "Mercy! It's genius! A man who could get anybody to buy one shoestring, couldn't help but succeed."

Farewell

Farewell, ye Seniors, our classmates and friends,
You start a new journey, which death only ends.
A trail that is full of hardships and trials,
Full of joy and sorrow, laughter and tears.
A trail that goes on for miles and for miles;
A trail that goes on for years and for years.
A new life before you, an old one gone by,
We part, dear friends, with many a sigh.
Four years have gone forth; they'll never return,
But memory shall stay, to bring us together,
And in our hearts, your friendship shall burn.
Good-bye dear Seniors, good-by, forever.
Fear not the way; doubt not the end;
Take not an insult; your rights defend.
Hold up your head, be a man with men,
Fear not the storm, but brave the rain,
For the clouds will make way for the sun again.
It's not what you do, but how it is done,
So this is the way your life may be won.

The other night at the library we had occasion to pick up for a few moments a book of United States History, and were quite surprised to learn that when Lee surrendered at Appomattox Court House he was handsomely attired in full uniform and wore a sword, while Grant had nothing on but a ragged old union suit.

Melba: "Thinking about me?"

Dot B.: "Oh, was I laughing? seen you with yesterday?"

Birdie: "Who was that girl I rday—that was the day before."

Frankie: "That wasn't yeste Pardon me."

He put his arm about her waist,
She did not draw away in haste,
She did not scream, she did not shout,
Nor did she seem put out.

She did not struggle, or grow red,
As one would naturally opine.
Right here I think it might be said,
Her waist was hanging on the line.
